BGRA awards Spotlight director

Spotlight director Zac Fried was awarded the prestigious annual Warwick Shedden memorial trophy at the Bulky Goods Retailers Association forum in Perth on Tuesday.

“Zac’s contribution to the Bulky Goods Retailers Association has been outstanding. He is never too busy, always enthusiastic and extremely deserving of the Warwick Shedden trophy,” said BGRA executive director Philippa Kelly.

“Zac provides us with ongoing support on a number of levels and BGRA members truly appreciate it,” Philippa added.

The Warwick Shedden memorial trophy recognises the significant contribution made by individuals to the BGRA. Previous recipients include The Good Guys’ Wayne Jennings, former BGRA convener Bryan Sanger and Sue Robinson, former executive general manager of the NSW Urban Taskforce.

The award is named in honour of Warwick Shedden, one of the founding members of the Bulky Goods Retailers Association. He was the owner of OZ Design Furniture before passing away suddenly in 2001.

The BGRA is the peak national organisation representing the interests of bulky goods retailers in Australia. Keynote speakers at the CB Richard Ellis BGRA 2008 WA forum on Tuesday included Richard Goyder, CEO and MD of Wesfarmers, and The Right Honourable Lord Mayor of Perth Lisa Scaffidi.
